

Horst Czenskowski

Applying his knowledge of Communication Design, and focus film Horst began his commercial production career as a Creative Director in Germany, with a background in production and direction. He lives and works as a Director in the media city of Munich. He has been successfully directing commercials for more than 15 years for the film and TV industry and specializes in advertising and promotions.

His portfolio is very diverse and ranges from humorous commercials to effective trailers and powerful creations of food and lifestyle products. Not only prestigious corporations such as Sony, Nintendo, Vodaphone, Allianz, Mövenpick and McCafe belongs to this circle of clients but also the German Film Academy and one of the largest German television companies ProSieben.

A proven problem solver time and time again, Horst is known for his ability to handle complex commercial productions that include detailed special effects and compositing. The way he is able to harmonize realities, his ability to tell a story, his attention to details and his thorough understanding of what is necessary, inspires advertisers to seek him out.

With a strong passion for expressing himself to every project he's involved generates in him a constant renovation and inspiration everywhere. During his career he's earned numerous awards including BDA & PROMAX Worldwide, PROMAX Europe, Eyes & Ears of Europe.

Horst joined CineConcepto team this year and we are very proud of having him among us.

